KIA ORA WELCOME

Included in this booklet is information pertaining to our programmes on offer to schools

We ask you to peruse this booklet and identify how our programmes can complement your students' learning. We are open to customising our programmes to align with your learning objectives.

With the Aotearoa New Zealand Histories Curriculum now implemented, we have tailored our programmes to support this change.

We are pleased to announce that Taupopoki George McLeod (Ngāti Whakaue, Tūhourangi-Ngāti Wāhiao, Tapuika, Ngaiterangi) has been appointed to the role of Kaiurungi Mātauranga o Te Whare Taonga o Te Arawa - Rotorua Museum Education Lead. George has been with the Museum team for over 20 years, and most of that has been in the Education Team, with the last 10 months acting in the Education Lead role.

George has taught generations of tamariki and rangatahi and is well known amongst the local education community. His teaching and wider education experience, curriculum knowledge, and extensive networks and relationships, together with the great job he has done as the acting lead, made him a great contender for the role.

For information on booking please see the last page of this booklet.

EIGHTEEN TWENTY THREE WARFARE FROM THE NORTH

Level: Secondary

Subjects: History - NCEA Level 1

Duration: 1.5 Hours
Up to 30 students per session

Venue: Rotorua Library, Te Aka Mauri

Using a range of hands-on, minds-on activities (including maps, objects and taonga) students will explore the factors which caused the invasion of Mokoia Island in 1823.

What happened during that event and what were the consequences afterwards for both Te Arawa and Ngāpuhi?

Students will examine not only the past but how this event is perceived by both iwi today.

This programme is delivered by our educator Taupopoki George McLeod (Ngāti Whakaue, Tūhourangi) and is a valuable resource when wanting to understand the events that occurred.

TOURISM DEVELOPMENT IN ROTORUA

Level: Secondary

Subjects: Geography - NCEA Level 3

Duration: 1.5 Hours
Up to 30 students per session

Venue: Te Rūnanga Tea House

Supports achievement standard 91427 A Cultural Process – Tourism Development

Students will receive an interactive, relevant and engaging talk while learning about tourism development.

This will summarise the birth of tourism at the Pink and White Terraces and the effects of the Mt Tarawera eruption. It will cover the diversification and advancement of the township and the attempts at catalytic development by the Government.

The talk will also explore the mass development phase and specialisation of tourism in recent years.

Staff will highlight the impact that social, political, economic, natural and technological elements have on the environment of Rotorua. This also includes the short term impacts of COVID-19.
